Dedication

"Kindly come . . . " said the Virgin Mary to Bernadette.

This is the call of Lourdes to men throughout the world to go in spirit to Mary, the Mother of God, the Mediatrix of Grace, who has visited earth and has bountifully watered and enriched it.

This year marks the centenary of the apparition of Our Lady at Lourdes, France. We seniors dedicate our yearbook to her and visit in spirit the hallowed spot where Mary appeared to Bernadette Soubirous, a simple and frail teen-age girl. In choosing one so young in years and heart for the mighty task of delivering her message to the world, Mary manifested her magnificent trust in youth. While this century has spelled out its wars, turmoil and atomic apprehensions, Lourdes has written a different record . . . one of peace, of comfort, of love.

We seniors have been taught to love deeply Mary, the Mother of Mankind. Educated by the Carmelite priests and the Sisters of Mercy, men and women dedicated to her, we have had inculcated in our hearts a living faith in her powers of intercession, an ardent hope that she will come to our assistance, and a devoted love for her—the Mother of God.

Mindful of the challenge that is ahead, we will strive to be worthy of Mary's great confidence in us, for we young Catholic men and women are the hope of the world. As we leave the portals of our school may we, as the pilgrims of Lourdes, bear the richness of faith, the hope, and the deep love for Mary, who is the Glory of Jerusalem, the Joy of Israel, the Honor of our People.

SENIORS

Faith is the shining keynote of Lourdes. Visiting the site of the apparitions we witness the boundless faith of Bernadette; we see the quiet faith reflected in the face of each pilgrim seeking Mary's aid. Strengthened, the Seniors go forth to meet the challenge of the future bearing this precious treasure of faith, confident that victory will be theirs.

UNDERGRADUATES

As the fountain of Lourdes is symbolic of Bernadette's ardent hope, so, too, it is a symbol of the steadfast hope of our undergraduates. Each student, coming to St. Simon Stock in the pursuit of knowledge, enters eagerly with hope. This continual flow of hope will culminate in the joy of graduation. May it lead them ever forward to attain greater victories and fulfill their mission as the "hope of the world".

ACTIVITIES

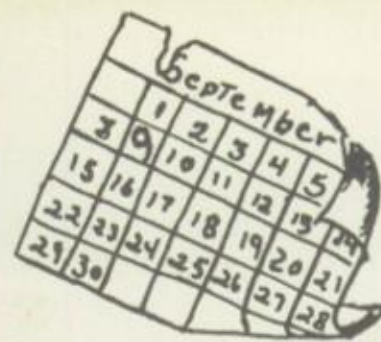

The basilica at Lourdes embodies the tremendous love and devotion of the world for Our Lady. It is with this same love for Mary that Simonites carry on their daily activities, progressing spiritually, physically, and intellectually. Thus they attain the full development characteristic of true sons and daughters of the Mother of Mankind.

At the Senior-Freshman Dance Getting Acquainted

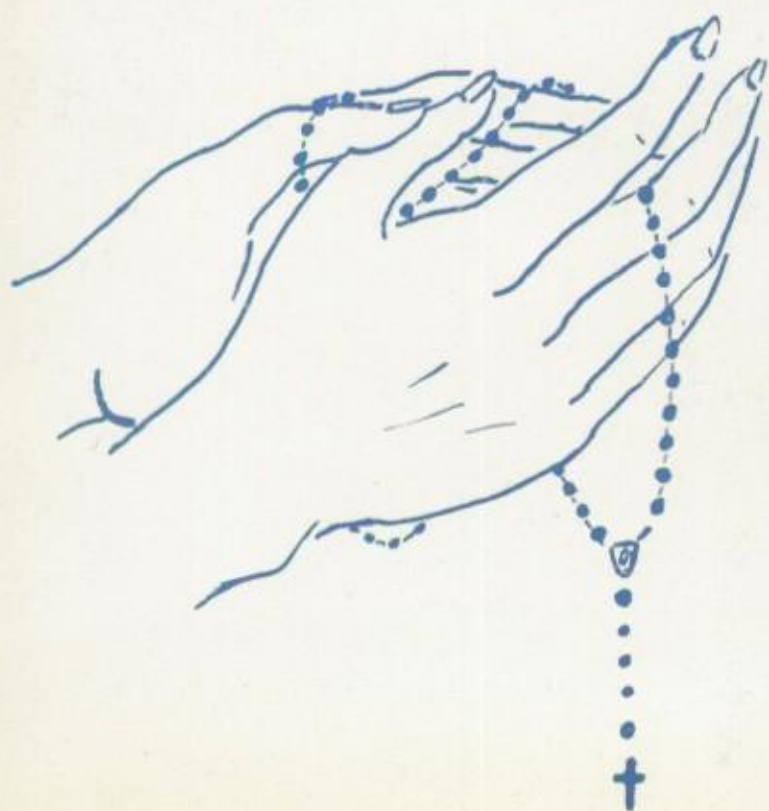

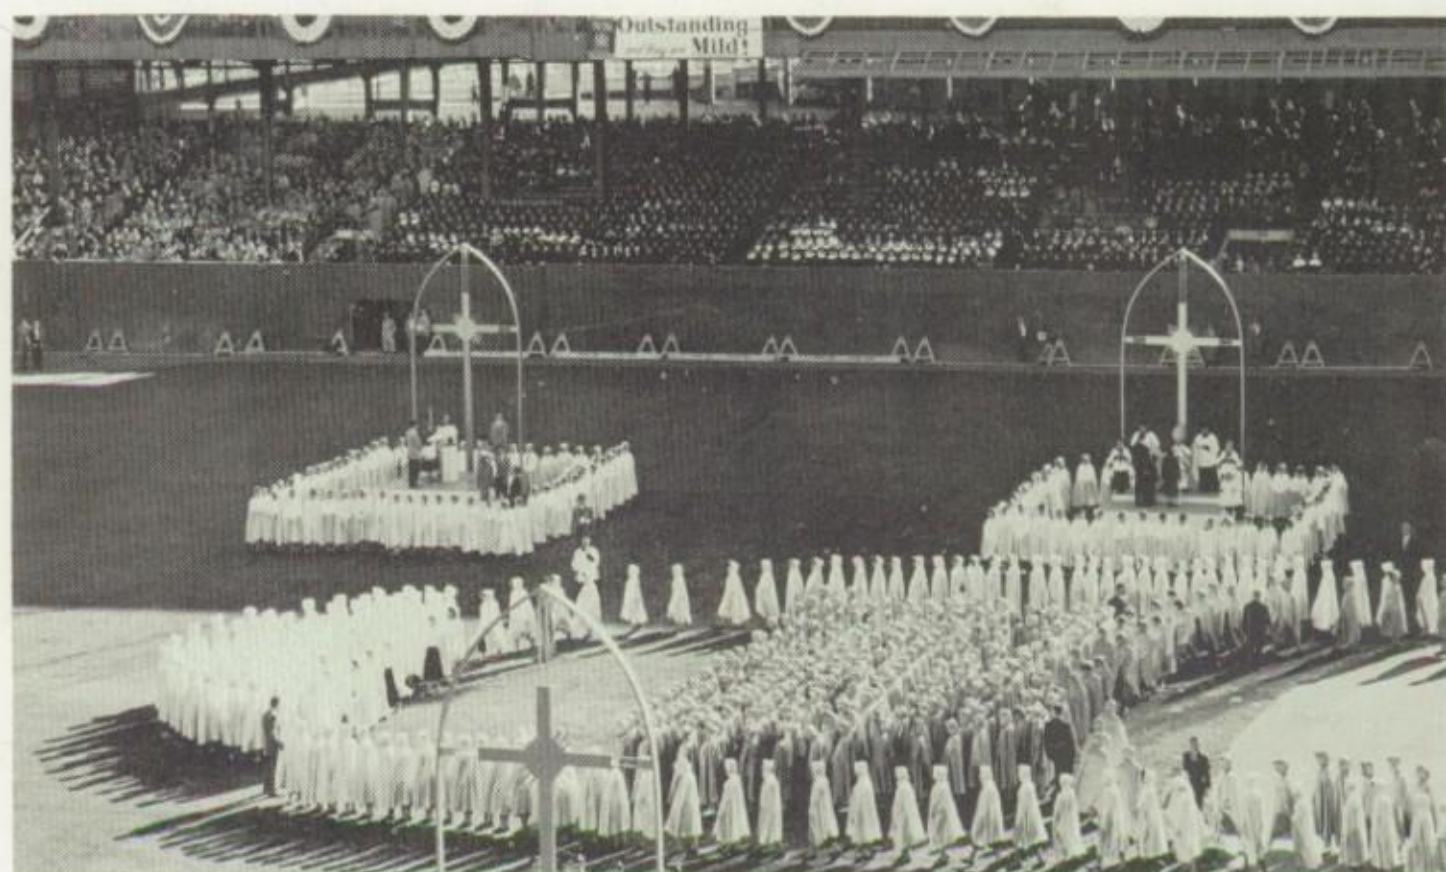

Cardinal Spellman and the hierarchy proceed to the altar.

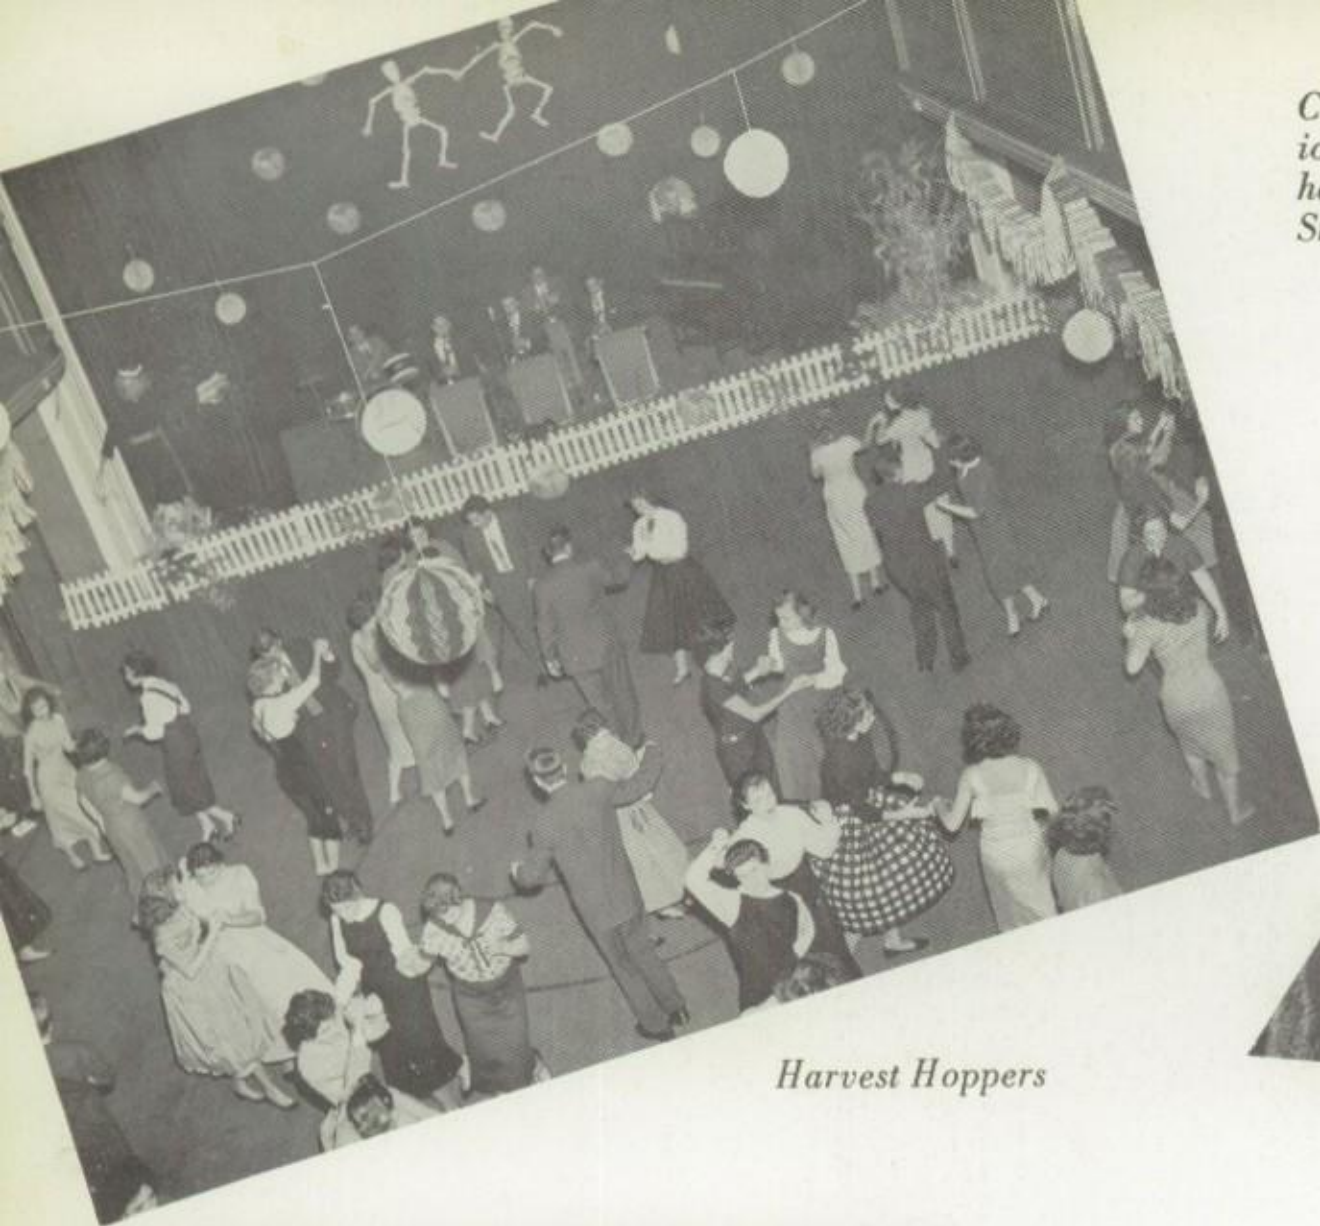

Sacraments depicted in tableaux. S.S.S. at upper left portraying "Baptism". Girls forming chalice and host in center of field.

Polo Grounds . . . October 1957

An air of unmistakable silence filled the realms of the Polo Grounds as the Cardinal and the hierarchy proceeded to the altar. Representing the archdiocesan schools, tableaux portraying the seven sacraments were centered in the vast field. Our school beautifully dramatized the sacrament of Baptism. Escorted by James Orsi and Robert Finnerty and carrying infant baby dolls, Eleanor Morrissey and Eileen Rubencamp, advanced to the Baptismal font where Gerard Kennedy, as priest, and John McNamara and John Butler, as fathers, awaited the administration of the sacrament. Upon finishing the explanation of each sacrament, the honor guard and entire audience recited the Holy Rosary. An afternoon showered with God's graces ended with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Simon Stock's Basketball Team

This year, St. Simon Stock's basketball team, with Fred Morris and Jimmy Corrigan as co-captains, played very well. Under the experienced hand of our coach, Mr. William Larkin, and with the return of only three players from last year's squad, it proved to be a rough opponent to its rivals. With many talented Juniors and newly acquired Sophomores, the S.S.S. spirit will be carried forward to further victories.

We, the graduates of 1958, are deeply grateful to our parents, teachers, and underclassmen for their cooperation and generosity in the production of the Stockade.
